

AUSTIN CARMONY

Developer
2 Years of Experience

“My goals at Flaherty & Collins are to add value and vision to the company strategy and use the Flaherty & Collins way to develop unique and industry-leading projects that will yield high financial returns while adding value to the community.”

Responsibilities

Austin’s responsibilities at Flaherty & Collins are to facilitate the development process and prepare financial projections for new and existing projects. He also is involved in market analysis, concept positioning and building relationships with lenders and clients.

Professional Experience

A graduate of Indiana University, Austin is beginning his career with Flaherty & Collins.

Education

Indiana University – Bloomington, Indiana
Bachelor’s degree in Business/Finance/Accounting
Kelley School of Business

Personal

In his free time, Austin enjoys skiing and playing golf. He also enjoys spending time with family and friends.

ACarmony@FlahertyCollins.com