

Ryan Cronk

Developer
12 Years of Experience

“Flaherty & Collins is a staple in the multi-family real estate industry, with a reputation that is synonymous with first-class development, professionalism, and the ability to adjust and persevere with ever changing market conditions. Being a part of this dedicated and committed team is rewarding in itself, but continuing to enhance the Flaherty & Collins brand will be the ultimate challenge, and reward.”

Responsibilities

Ryan’s responsibilities include identifying and executing new development opportunities, providing retail expertise on all F&C projects which include retail components, providing design and development ideas on all F&C projects, and explore new business opportunities that align with F&C goals and objectives.

Professional Experience

Ryan started his professional real estate career immediately after college, with a primary focus on retail and mixed-use developments throughout the country. His experience includes:

Premier Properties USA – Indianapolis, Indiana
Executive Vice-President of Development & Acquisitions

Accreditations/ Organizations

Indiana Real Estate Salesperson License
International Council for Shopping Centers (ICSC)
Committee Member for the ICSC Annual CenterBuild Conference

Education

Indiana University, Bloomington, Indiana
Bachelor’s degree in Kinesiology

Personal

Ryan is married with two children. He enjoys traveling, running, basketball, skiing, and spending as much time as possible with his family.

RCronk@FlahertyCollins.com