

Ryan Cronk

Developer
13 Years of Experience

---

“Flaherty & Collins is a staple in the multi-family real estate industry, with a reputation that is synonymous with first-class development, professionalism, and the ability to adjust and persevere with ever changing market conditions. Being a part of this dedicated and committed team is rewarding in itself, but continuing to enhance the Flaherty & Collins brand will be the ultimate challenge, and reward.”

---

---

Responsibilities

Ryan’s responsibilities include identifying and executing new development opportunities, providing retail expertise on all F&C projects which include retail components, providing design and development ideas on all F&C projects, and explore new business opportunities that align with F&C goals and objectives.

---

Professional Experience

Ryan started his professional real estate career immediately after college, with a primary focus on retail and mixed-use developments throughout the country. His experience includes:

Premier Properties USA – Indianapolis, Indiana
Executive Vice-President of Development & Acquisitions

---

Accreditations/ Organizations

Indiana Real Estate Salesperson License
International Council for Shopping Centers (ICSC)
Committee Member for the ICSC Annual CenterBuild Conference

---

Education

Indiana University, Bloomington, Indiana
Bachelor’s degree in Kinesiology

---

Personal

Ryan is married with two children. He enjoys traveling, running, basketball, skiing, and spending as much time as possible with his family.

---

RCronk@FlahertyCollins.com