

JAMES A. CROSSIN, CCIM

Vice President, Development
23 Years of Experience

“Flaherty & Collins gets the job done because we have a strong team. Construction, finance, management and marketing are all involved throughout the development process. This team approach means we get the deal closed and develop successful properties in the most efficient, effective manner possible.”

Responsibilities

Jim creates new multifamily development opportunities for Flaherty & Collins Properties. Jim is involved throughout the entire development process to ensure the property is developed for maximum investment return. During his ten years at Flaherty & Collins Properties, he has participated in the development of more than 2,000 units.

Professional Experience

Jim’s career in real estate started in the commercial sector with experience in retail and office leasing, brokerage and development.

Acorn Group, Inc. – Indianapolis, Indiana
Commercial Leasing and Brokerage

Kosene and Kosene Development Co. – Indianapolis, Indiana
Commercial Leasing and Brokerage

Indiana National Bank – Indianapolis, Indiana
Credit Analyst, Real Estate and Construction

Accreditations/ Organizations

Certified Commercial Investment Member (CCIM)
International Council of Shopping Centers
Indiana Apartment Association

Education

BA Economics
DePauw University, Greencastle, Indiana

Personal

Jim is married with two children. Jim is an active alumnus and past alumni board member of Brebeuf Jesuit High School. He enjoys playing golf and vacationing with his family.

jcrossin@FlahertyCollins.com