

Doug McDaniel

General Superintendent
34 Years of Experience

“Flaherty & Collins has assembled some of the best construction people throughout the industry. Through our determined efforts and collective experience, the success of this company and the people we serve is eminent.”

Responsibilities

Doug’s main responsibility is to oversee all projects in the Southeast Region from conception to completion for Flaherty & Collins Construction. We are committed to building quality communities in a timely and cost-effective manner.

Professional Experience

Doug has had a long career in the construction industry spanning more than three decades. His experience before joining Flaherty & Collins Construction includes:

Summit Builders – Charlotte, N.C.
Superintendent

Blazer Building, Inc. – Houston, Texas
General Superintendent
Superintendent

Doug McDaniel Construction
Owner

Accreditations/ Organizations

FHA Certified Contractor
Unlimited General Contractor
Registered Electrical Contractor
Registered Plumbing Contractor
SABI 2000 Employee of the Year
Highland Green Best Living in America Award
Former Member UC Union – WPB, Florida
Military Veteran

Education

Chipola Junior College – Marianna, FL
Associate’s degree in General Education

Florida State University – Tallahassee, FL
History major

Personal

Doug is widowed and the father of two. In his spare time, he enjoys building custom furniture and spending time with his grandson, “Doc.”

dmcdaniel@FlahertyCollins.com