

BRIAN L. PLOSS, CPA

Chief Financial Officer
19 Years of Experience

“Flaherty and Collins is the largest third party real estate management company in Indiana. We have a great reputation and great talent. We care about our clients; we work to protect their investments and increase their financial return.”

Responsibilities

Brian oversees the financial operations of development, property management, and construction. His responsibilities include budget preparation and monitoring, financial reporting and analysis, corporate performance/profit improvement, human resources, office management and permanent refinancing.

Professional Experience

Since graduating with honors from Ball State University, Brian has worked in accounting and financial management, specializing in real estate. His experience includes:

Creative Financial Staffing – Indianapolis, Indiana
Consultant

George S. Olive & Company CPA – Indianapolis Indiana
Senior Accountant

Accreditations/ Organizations

American Institute of Certified Public Accountants – Member
Indiana Real Estate Broker
Indiana CPA Society – Member

Education

BS Business, Accounting and Corporate Financial Management
Ball State University, Muncie, Indiana

Personal

Brian is married with two children. Brian enjoys golf, basketball, and renovating antique tractors.

bploss@FlahertyCollins.com