

Jennifer Trumpy

Regional Property Manager
9 Years of Experience

“I believe that in order for your staff and communities to succeed they must be given the proper tools – including training, supervision and financial management. Flaherty & Collins makes this happen with the diverse wealth of knowledge and experience their employees possess.”

Responsibilities

Jennifer oversees a portfolio of 5 communities throughout Ohio, Indiana, and Georgia. Her areas of responsibilities include communicating with owners and ensuring they are getting the best ROI on their asset, and empowering her staff with knowledge and guidance in order to achieve these goals.

Professional Experience

Jennifer brings more than nine years of affordable housing, conventional market rate and project based section 8 experience to Flaherty & Collins Properties, where she has managed both affordable multifamily communities, as well as luxury market rate properties. Her specific experience includes:

Covington Greens Apartments, Findlay, Ohio
Property Manager

Crystal Glen Apartments, Findlay, Ohio
Property Manager

Accreditations/ Organizations

Accredited Residential Manager (ARM)
Certified Occupancy Specialist (COS)
Institute of Real Estate Management (IREM) – member
Hancock County Apartment Association – member

Education

University of Findlay, Findlay Ohio
Bachelor’s degree in Business Management and Business Economics

Personal

Jennifer enjoys sports, the outdoors, spending time with her friends and family and her two boxers.

jtrumpy@FlahertyCollins.com